SUBJECT: MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, Aka.

(b)(7)(C)

Re Bureau airtel 7/9/62 concerning investigation of [REDACTED]

For the information of the Bureau the Chicago Division does not believe that the Antitrust investigation into the Chicago Sanitary District will involve [REDACTED] to the degree that he will be a major subject in this investigation. The reason it is felt desirable to establish close coverage on [REDACTED] is because of his association with HUMPHREYS. In addition, it is believed that [REDACTED] activities will be of interest in the overall aspects of the Criminal Intelligence Program. It is not felt that special coverage will, in any way, jeopardize the Antitrust investigation.

The Bureau is requested to reconsider whether such coverage can be established in the event fisurs being conducted at the present time develop information that special coverage will be warranted.

FROM INFORMATION PROVIDED BY [REDACTED] IT IS APPARENT THAT WHEN HUMPHREYS' ASSOCIATE, [REDACTED], WAS INTERVIEWED FRIDAY BY BUREAU AGENTS HE HAD MADE PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS SO THAT THE HOODLUM MUSCLE MAN OF [REDACTED] WAS IN ANOTHER ROOM THERE DURING THE INTERVIEW. IT IS NOTED THAT WHEN THE FIRST CONTACT AT [REDACTED] WAS MADE FRIDAY, [REDACTED] WAS NOT PRESENT WITH THE RESULT THAT THE AGENTS RETURNED WITHIN THREE HOURS. [REDACTED] IMMEDIATELY FURNISHED TO [REDACTED] DETAILS CONCERNING HIS INTERVIEW. [REDACTED] PRESUMABLY THEN FURNISHED THESE DETAILS TO HIS HOODLUM SUPERIORS.

[REDACTED] WAS SOMEWHAT CRITICAL OF [REDACTED] AND INFORMED [REDACTED] THAT HE SHOULD HAVE REFERRED THE AGENTS TO HIS ATTORNEY WITH INSTRUCTIONS THAT THE AGENTS SHOULD PREPARE A MEMORANDUM LISTING THE QUESTIONS FOR PRESENTATION TO [REDACTED] ATTORNEY PRIOR TO ANSWERING BY [REDACTED]

ALTHOUGH IT WAS FELT THAT IT WOULD BE HUMPHREYS WHOM [REDACTED] WOULD BE IN CONTACT WITH CONCERNING HIS INTERVIEW SINCE THIS IS THE NATURE OF HUMPHREYS' DUTIES IN ORGANIZED CRIME, [REDACTED] WAS APPARENTLY [REDACTED] WHOM [REDACTED] REPORTED TO. The residence of HUMPHREYS has been observed on several occasions during the month of May and June by SA [REDACTED] during the morning, afternoon and evening hours in an attempt to determine whether HUMPHREYS has been present. At no time has SA [REDACTED] observed HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED] expressed some degree of surprise at the fact that a man of HUMPHREYS' age would spend time at The Scene inasmuch as it is an establishment catering to the "Twist" dance which is usually performed by much younger and more athletic individuals than HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED]

It is noted that information has previously been obtained from [REDACTED] that HUMPHREYS was in the habit during 1959 and 1960 of dining at the Whitehall Club, which has an exclusive membership. Contact was made at that time by SA [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and although it was determined that HUMPHREYS was not a member of the Whitehall Club, he apparently was in the practice of dining there either with [REDACTED] who was a member of the Whitehall Club, or on the basis of being a friend of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised that they were aware of the identity of HUMPHREYS and although they did not desire his presence there, they did not feel that they should take any action to prevent him in view of his reputation for violence.

In view of definite indications that Humphreys will move from his present apartment, intensive efforts should be made to ascertain his new address and determine the feasibility of confidential coverage in order to be continuously aware of the subject's activities and contacts.

NOTE: Humphreys is a top Chicago hoodlum selected for intensive investigation who is extremely elusive and secretive in his movements and travel. He is in arrears in the payment of rent on his present apartment and has been notified that eviction proceedings will be initiated if payment is not made.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

At 9:00 AM on August 24, 1962, SA [REDACTED] and MARSHALL E. RUTLAND observed that a moving van of the Trans World Van Lines, 5210 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, was parked adjacent to the loading ramp of the apartment building at 4200 North Marine Drive. This van was number 1014 and carried 1962 Illinois license H8039 as well as numerous licenses of other states, including Florida. The loaders assigned to the van advised SA [REDACTED] and RUTLAND that they were loading the furnishings of Mr. HUMPHREY in Apartment 1001.

II. ASSOCIATES

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as one of the top echelon leaders of organized criminals in this area and as being an extremely close associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as a leading member of organized crime in the Chicago area on a level somewhat lower than HUMPHREYS.

FRANK FERRARO

At 12:00 noon on September 5, 1962, SAs [REDACTED] and RUTLAND observed HUMPHREYS in the lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel in conference with several individuals among whom was FRANK FERRARO. SAs [REDACTED] and RUTLAND who were able to secrete themselves in a telephone booth for approximately half an hour during the meetings between HUMPHREYS, FERRARO and others, were able to overhear portions of the conversation among these individuals. (b)(7)(C), (D)

CG 92-348

It was overheard that HUMPHREYS and his associates plan to continue meeting in various hotels and public restaurants in the Chicago area on an irregular basis so that their meetings and conversations which take place therein would not be susceptible to coverage by law enforcement agencies in the Chicago area. It was also observed that FERRARO and [REDACTED] split off from the rest of the group for approximately ten minutes and were engaged in a conversation of their own during which time FERRARO requested [REDACTED] to make certain arrangements for a female acquaintance of FERRARO's.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] has been interviewed on two or three occasions by SA [REDACTED] but has refused to comment concerning his association with FERRARO and other Chicago hoodlums and has instead referred SA [REDACTED] to his attorney, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] has identified FERRARO as being a member of the top echelon of leaders of organized criminals in the Chicago area and as a constant associate of HUMPHREYS.

JOE FUSCO

[REDACTED]
It is a matter of public knowledge that JOE FUSCO is the owner of Merit Liquors, a distributor for several of the leading beers and liquors, and that he is a former member of the AL CAPONE mob in Chicago, having been associated with CAPONE in the operation of CAPONE's illegal beer business in the late 1920's and early 1930's.

CG 92-348

SAN GIANCANA

(H)(2)
(H)(7)(C)(D)

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] has identified GIANCANA as being one of the top level leaders of organized crime in the Chicago area and as such is an extremely close associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

HY GODFREY

At approximately 12:15 PM on September 5, 1962, SAs [REDACTED] and RUTLAND observed HY GODFREY join a group of individuals, including HUMPHREYS, who were at that time holding a meeting in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago. From the observations of the agents, it did not appear that GODFREY was present at the outset of this meeting or that he took a prominent part in the conversations. It instead appeared that he was acting more or less as a guard and that he constantly walked up and down the corridor during the time the meeting was in progress.

[REDACTED] has identified GODFREY as being the bodyguard, chauffeur, errand boy, and appointment secretary of the governing board of organized criminals in the Chicago area, which includes HUMPHREYS, GIANCANA, [REDACTED] and FERRARO.
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] (b)(2) (b)(7)(C) (b)(7)(D) Y
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] has confirmed the above information supplied by [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

As is set out above under the caption of "FRANK FERRARO", [REDACTED] was observed by SAs [REDACTED] and HUTLAND in the company of HUMPHREYS in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel on September 5, 1962.

SA [REDACTED] also observed [REDACTED] with HUMPHREYS in the barber shop located in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel during the early afternoon hours of September 5, 1962.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being the [REDACTED] This informant has also identified [REDACTED] as being an individual used on frequent occasions by HUMPHREYS, FERRARO, and [REDACTED] as a political fixer and as a go-between for them and legitimate labor leaders and businessmen.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being a person who exercises considerable influence in the affairs of the Democratic organization of the First Ward and as having much more power than one would ordinarily be expected to have in the capacity of secretary to an alderman.

[REDACTED] has also advised that [REDACTED] acts as a middle man between the owners and operators of strip joints located in the Loop area of Chicago who pay tribute to organized criminals such as [REDACTED] and FERRARO.

CG 92-348

Information has been developed through this informant that once a month the sum of $300.00 is channeled through [REDACTED] from the operators of approximately eight strip joints in the Loop area to [REDACTED] and FERRARO, who are the leaders of organized crime in the first ward which includes the Loop.

(b)(2)
(b)(7)(C), (D)

RALPH PIERCE

On September 5, 1962, SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] observed that RALPH PIERCE was in the company of HUMPHREYS and others holding a half hour meeting in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago.

[REDACTED] has identified PIERCE as being an extremely close associate of HUMPHREYS in that PIERCE is the former bodyguard of HUMPHREYS and in that PIERCE is now a leading member of the organized criminals in Chicago, with primary jurisdiction for control of the south side of Chicago. From information developed by [REDACTED] it is apparent that PIERCE operates on a level just below that of HUMPHREYS.

EDDIE VOGEL

[REDACTED] has identified VOGEL as being a close associate of HUMPHREYS and as being a leader of organized criminals in the Chicago area. [REDACTED] advised that VOGEL is in charge of the revenue and operation of coin-operated devices in the Chicago area and that as such operates on a level lower than that of HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED]

It should be noted that [REDACTED] furnished information approximately a year ago that HUMPHREYS considered The Whitehall Restaurant as being an excellent place to meet with his associates due to the fact that it is a private club and has qualities of privacy which lends to the confidential nature of hoodlum meetings.

It should be noted that SA [REDACTED] has been in contact on several occasions with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] have advised that [REDACTED] is a member of the Whitehall Club and that as a result of his membership many of his friends have in the past dined there. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] have advised that sometimes HUMPHREYS appears at the club but he is not a member there. [REDACTED]

SA [REDACTED] conducted a surveillance at the Whitehall Club during the noon and early afternoon hours of August 24, and 31, 1962, but did not observe HUMPHREYS or any other of his associates.

Wabash and Monroe Streets

As is set out above under the caption "Associates" HUMPHREYS was observed during an half hour conference with his associates in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel and in the barber shop of the Palmer House Hotel. It also appeared that HUMPHREYS and his associates had reservations under a fictitious name in the Town and Country Restaurant located in the Lower Arcade of the Palmer House Hotel, for the reason that their bodyguard and errand boy, HY GODFREY, occupied a table in the Town and Country Restaurant during part of the meeting.

Some of the conversation was overheard between HUMPHREYS and his associates; however, it did not appear that HUMPHREYS uses the Palmer House Hotel on other than infrequent occasions for meetings with his associates.

(b)(7)(C)

SUBJECT: MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, AKA, AR. DAILY SUMMARY.

IT APPEARS APPARENT FROM YESTERDAY'S SURVEILLANCE OF HUMPHREYS AND HIS ASSOCIATES THAT THEY CURRENTLY ARE NOT MEETING IN PRIVATE OFFICES OR ROOMS SUCH AS THEY WERE A YEAR OR MORE AGO. FROM THE CONVERSATION WHICH WAS OVERHEARD IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT HUMPHREYS AND THE OTHER TOP MEMBERS OF ORGANIZED CRIME HERE ARE CONSTANTLY MEETING IN PUBLIC PLACES WHICH ARE MORE OR LESS IN THE OPEN AND NOT SUSCEPTIBLE TO TECHNICAL SURVEILLANCE.

IT IS EQUALLY AS APPARENT THAT THEY CONSTANTLY MOVE THE LOCATION OF THEIR MEETING PLACES IN ORDER THAT NO PATTERN OF MEETS BECOMES KNOWN TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES. IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THIS POLICY IS IN LINE WITH THAT SPONSORED BY HUMPHREYS TWO YEARS AGO ACCORDING TO [REDACTED] IT IS EXPECTED HOWEVER THAT CONTINUED DISCREET AND LOOSE SURVEILLANCES OF HY GODFREY WILL LEAD TO INFORMATION CONCERNING ADDITIONAL MEETS OF THESE HOODLUMS.

Return of the Camel

A NAME from the past jumped back into the headlines in Chicago this week, and with it came memories of Al Capone, John Dillinger and Baby Face Nelson. The name was Murray Humphreys, better known to the Chicago police, the Internal Revenue Service and his underworld friends as "The Camel."

Humphreys, who is now 62, was a prominent member of the Capone gang in its heyday. He is still described in the files of the Internal Revenue as "a notorious gangster." But since he served a prison sentence in 1934 for tax evasion little had been heard of him.

This week the tireless men of the Internal Revenue discovered that for years he has been leading a double life. Government agents in Florida found that the benevolent, cheery "retired oilman" who lived in a lavish Spanish-style house in Key Biscayne under the name of Lewis Hart was really Humphreys (who in his real Chicago life was anything but the friendly neighbor).

A Government prosecutor

Chicago said the money Humphreys had spent on buying and remodeling the house "probably" exceeded his reported income and had strengthened the Government's chances of building a new tax case against him.

DEFERRED 9-29-62 6-43 AM
TO DIRECTOR, FBI /92-3088/
FROM SAC, CHICAGO /92-348/

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, AKA, AR. DAILY SUMMARY.

THE OKLAHOMA CITY OFFICE HAS ADVISED THAT ON SEPTEMBER TWENTYFOUR LAST THEY RECEIVED A TELEPHONE CALL FROM AN ANONYMOUS CALLER WHO ADVISED THAT MONEY TAKEN IN A RECENT MAIL ROBBERY COULD BE LOCATED ON A FARM SEVENTEEN MILES EAST OF NORMAN, OKLAHOMA, ON HIGHWAY NINE, WHERE THE RESIDENT IS NAMED BRENDLE. WHEN QUESTIONED AS TO WHY THESE PEOPLE WOULD HAVE THE MONEY, HE STATED THAT THE BRENDLE WOMAN IS THE WIFE OF HUMPHREYS, KNOWN AS QUOTE THE CAMEL UNQUOTE WHO WAS HEAD OF THE SYNDICATE BACK EAST. THE INFORMANT INDICATED SOME FAMILIARITY WITH THE BASEMENT OF THE HOUSE WHERE THE MONEY WAS TO BE FOUND AND WITH THE FARM ITSELF.

OKLAHOMA CITY CONTINUES TO INVESTIGATE THIS SITUATION.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

The following article appeared in the London Daily Telegraph dated August 30, 1962, under the caption "Return of the Camel". This article is quoted below in its entirety:

"A name from the past jumped back into the headlines in Chicago this week, and with it came memories of Al Capone, John Dillinger and Baby Face Nelson. The name was Murray Humphreys, better known to the Chicago police, the Internal Revenue Service and his underworld friends as 'The Camel'.

"Humphreys, who is now 62, was a prominent member of the Capone gang in its heyday. He is still described in the files of the Internal Revenue as 'a notorious gangster.' But since he served a prison sentence in 1934 for tax evasion little had been heard of him.

"This week the tireless men of the Internal Revenue discovered that for years he has been leading a double life. Government agents in Florida found that the benevolent, cheery 'retired oilman' who lived in a lavish Spanish-style house in Key Biscayne under the name of Lewis Hart was really Humphreys (who in his real Chicago life was anything but the friendly neighbour).

"A Government prosecutor in Chicago said the money Humphreys had spent on buying and remodelling the house 'probably' exceeded his reported income and had strengthened the Government's chances of building a new tax case against him."

[REDACTED]

In view of the fact that investigation is being conducted to determine the whereabouts of HUMPHREYS, [REDACTED] the following investigation was conducted:

DEFERRED 11-21-62 8:11 AM [REDACTED]

FROM SAC CHICAGO 202244

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, AKA., AR. DAILY SUMMARY.

[REDACTED] ADVISED NOVEMBER 19 LAST THAT ON THAT DATE [REDACTED] DISCUSSED THE RECENT SERIES OF ARTICLES CONCERNING CHICAGO TOP HOODLUMS WHICH APPEARS IN "CHICAGO'S AMERICAN." [REDACTED] INDICATED THAT CHICAGO TOP HOODLUMS WERE MORE OR LESS FAIR GAME FOR NEWSPAPER REPORTERS BUT DEPLORED THE FACT THAT THE ARTICLE ON HUMPHREYS IDENTIFIED UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN ROLAND V. LIBONATI AS BEING A KNOWN ASSOCIATE OF HUMPHREYS WHO WAS KNOWN TO BE IN HUMPHREY'S COMPANY WHEN HUMPHREYS WAS ARRESTED AS EARLY AS 1930.

[REDACTED] ALSO DEPLORED THE FACT THAT ARTICLES IDENTIFIED OTHER POLITICIANS AND PUBLIC OFFICIALS SUCH AS JOHN EDGAR HOOVER AND FRANK CHESROW AS BEING KNOWN ASSOCIATES OF HOODLUMS.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

Reporter NORMAN GLUBOK prepared a series of six articles which appeared in the "Chicago's American" commencing on November 11, 1962. These were all front page stories dealing with the "Captains of Chicago's Underworld". In the first article written by GLUBOK entitled "Captains of Corruptions, the following information appeared concerning MURRAY HUMPHREYS:

"In 1931, a year before Capone went to prison, there was speculation about who would succeed him as gang chief.

"Murray Humphreys is said to be in full charge of all the hard liquor business on the south side of Chicago," wrote one newspaper reporter.

"The (federal) agents say they learned something of his importance in the gang by listening to his voice over the tapped wires when he gave commands to lieutenants."

"That was more than 30 years ago. But then, as now, Murray Humphreys was one of the men who rule Chicago crime."

On November 12, 1962, GLUBOK wrote an article entitled "Captains of Corruption - Murray Humphreys - Government Agents Would Walk Miles to Get 'The Camel'". This article is quoted below in its entirety:

"Very slowly and almost painfully the old man shuffled along the dim corridor of the Federal building in search of the grand jury room, pausing every few steps to lean on his cane and regain his strength.

"He was dressed in a rumpled old raincoat and a gray Homburg that had seen better days. Over his left eye he wore a black patch. A pitiful sight.

"Veteran court employes and newspaper men were moved as they contrasted this shell of a man with the Murray Humphreys they once had known, a vigorous and handsome man whose custom-tailored suits were always immaculate.

"The bystanders didn't know it, that April day in 1959, but they were wasting their sympathy.

"Murray Humphreys - known to newspaper readers as 'The Camel' and to his gangster friends as 'Curley' - was engaging in a deliberate bit of play acting.

"He was trying to perpetuate a myth that he himself had created, that he was a tired and sickly old man who had long since retired from the rackets and who wanted nothing more from life than to live out his few remaining days on earth in peace and solitude.

"'I came in this morning from Arizona,' the onetime pal of the late Al Capone told reporters as he posed for photographers. 'All I want to do is go back there.

"'I haven't enough life left in me to do anything.'

"Then Humphreys disappeared into the grand jury room, stayed only five minutes as he ducked behind the 5th Amendment, and limped out of the building.

"But Murray Humphreys, the man who 30 years ago succeeded Al Capone as Chicago's Public Enemy Number One when 'Scarface' went to prison, is far from retired.

"He is not poor or sickly, either.

CG 92-348

"At 63, Humphreys, the acknowledged brains of Capone's hoodlum empire, is still the crime syndicate's chief adviser and master fixer.

"He reports an annual income of more than $100,000 mostly labeled 'miscellaneous' in his tax return but actually his cut of Chicago gambling profits and other hoodlum ventures.

"He has a $250,000 mansion at 210 Harbor dr., Key Biscayne, Fla., where he poses as 'Mr. Lewis Hart', a retired oil man.

"There around the backyard kidney-shaped swimming pool, 'Hart' plays the part of a gracious host, serving tall drinks and chatting amiably about deep-sea fishing.

"When solicitors for local charities come to the door, Humphreys responds in the manner of a man of affluence with generous contributions.

"Until last summer Humphreys also had an elegant $325 a month apartment on the 10th floor at 4200 Marine dr., overlooking Lincoln Park and Lake Michigan.

"There Humphreys and his second wife, Betty Jeanne, a good looking blonde 34 year old ex-dice girl, were known to neighbors as 'Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humphrey,' a couple that kept to themselves.

"Since his crime syndicate duties do not require regular hours, Humphreys has plenty of time to spend with his cronies.

"Many mornings he can be seen having breakfast at the restaurant in the St. Clair hotel. Occasionally he is joined by two friends of many years.

"After breakfast he may stroll along Michigan avenue, pausing now and again to peer into display windows or to browse in a book store or antique shop.

CG 92-348

"In his dark suit and silver-rimmed spectacles, Humphreys often travels unrecognized - except for a few old-time policemen who occasionally stop to chat and who address him as 'Mr. Humphreys', a mark of their respect.

"At lunch Humphreys is most likely to turn up at the Imperial House, Fritzel's or some other fine restaurant, often in the company of two syndicate pals, Gus (Slim) Alex and Frank (Strongy) Furraro.

"After lunch Humphreys is likely to return to his hotel and nap until early evening when he goes out to dinner, occasionally at the Pump room.

"For dinner companions, Humphreys usually chooses some of his old friends in the business or labor world. One of his closest friends owns a trucking company, another owns a large south side laundry, and a third is a well-known restaurant owner.

"After a leisurely dinner and a few drinks, Humphreys normally returns to his hotel, almost always before midnight.

"But Humphreys doesn't get $100,00 a year from the crime syndicate for doing nothing. As the master-fixer he must travel to Miami, Las Vegas, Hot Springs, New York.

"At times he goes to Washington, where he has been conferring with a Chicago congressman, reports Richard Ogilvie, sheriff-elect of Cook County and former Special Assistant United States Attorney General.

"Humphreys seems to be the ambassador of the Chicago syndicate," says Ogilvie, who has conducted several grand jury investigations of organized crime. "Whenever Chicago gangsters have a problem, Humphreys is the one who is called upon to handle it. He is the real brains of the outfit."

CG 92-348

"At times Humphreys' travels don't take him as far as Washington or New York or Las Vegas.

"In 1958 he went no farther than the Armory Lounge in suburban Forest Park, where, according to testimony in federal court, he successfully pressured an official of Premium Beer Sales, Inc., to put Humphreys' pal Tony Accardo on the payroll as a salesman for $65,000 a year.

"On Dec. 1, 1958, Humphreys was observed lunching with hoodlum pals Sam (Mooney) Giancana and Gus Alex and a west side alderman in an expensive Loop restaurant.

"When it came time to leave, police were told, all left separately by way of the rear exit.

"Just last spring Humphreys is reported to have directed strategy in the Peoria whisky hijacking trial of James (Monk) Allegritti and four other syndicate hoodlums.

"Last March 7 on the eve of the trial Humphreys was observed engaged in hushed conversation with Allegritti and another side syndicate boss Ross Prio in the since shuttered Mike Fish restaurant at 101 E. Ontario St.

"Allegritti and three of the defendants were convicted and sentenced to 7 years each in prison.

"The fifth defendant, Joseph (Ruffy) Liscandrello, complained of chest pains the third day of the trial, entered a Chicago hospital and was dropped from the case.

"Humphreys is credited with rescuing Liscandrello from prosecution, perhaps for old times' sake.

"Humphreys could recall that he was manacled wrist-to-wrist with Liscandrello 28 years ago when both were being shipped from Chicago to Leavenworth prison - Humphreys

Synopsis:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] furnished information during the first week of December, 1962, that at that time MURRAY HUMPHREYS had given him to understand that he intended to leave the Chicago area very shortly "for warmer climates". Informant advised that it was his understanding from this remark that HUMPHREYS intended to leave the Chicago area for his residence in Florida. As is set out above, however, HUMPHREYS remained in Chicago at least as of December 13, 1962.

II. POSITION IN ORGANIZED CRIME

[REDACTED] has furnished information in recent years indicating that MURRAY HUMPHREYS is one of the top leaders of organized criminals in the Chicago area. He has confidentially reported that HUMPHREYS' particular sphere of authority has been in the selection of public officials and politicians who will work with members of the organization of criminals and in maintaining contact with these individuals to insure that they provide favorable treatment in matters which are of concern to the criminals. [REDACTED] however, has not been in constant contact with HUMPHREYS during the past year, although occasionally he contacts HUMPHREYS.

CG 92-348

██████████ advised that during the past month, SAM GIANCANA has made a decision to take his support from ██████████ of the city of Chicago and to replace him with ██████████ GIANCANA's ██████████. This informant has advised that when ██████████ was initially installed in his present capacity as ██████████ it was done so through the influence and machinations of HUMPHREYS. However, when ██████████ attempted to use HUMPHREYS to present his case to GIANCANA last month, he was informed, apparently by someone other than HUMPHREYS, that GIANCANA now has sole authority insofar as politics is concerned and that although HUMPHREYS, being respected by GIANCANA, may be able to talk to GIANCANA in this area, he has no authority or power to alter any decision made by GIANCANA even when it concerns politics which is the area HUMPHREYS formerly was responsible for.

██████████ advised that FRANK "BUSTER" WORTMAN, a leader of organized criminals in downstate Illinois was in town during the last week of November, 1962, and that his purpose in being in Chicago was to contact SAM GIANCANA and MURRAY HUMPHREYS. Informant advised that it was his understanding that WORTMAN desired to discuss a situation in Hot Springs, Arkansas, with GIANCANA and HUMPHREYS. Informant was unable to furnish any further information in this regard.

III. ASSOCIATES

██████████ ILL advised that he learned that during the third week of October, 1962, MURRAY HUMPHREYS and ██████████ intended to meet with each other in an unknown location during the late afternoon or evening hours. Informant was unable to furnish any further information concerning the nature or location of this conference.

RE CONTACT HAD BEEN MADE WITH HUMPHREYS' CLOSE ASSOCIATE MORIE NORMAN. NORMAN OWNS AND OPERATES THE PITTSFIELD RESTAURANT WHICH HAS BEEN A HANGOUT OF HUMPHREYS AND OWNS A CHAIN OF DRUG STORES IN THE CHICAGO AREA.

IT IS NOTED THAT NORMAN HAS BEEN OBSERVED IN THE PAST TAKING ORDERS FOR PRESCRIPTIONS FROM HUMPHREYS' HOODLUM ASSOCIATES.

DURING THE CONVERSATION, NORMAN ADVISED THAT FROM INFORMATION WHICH HAS COME FROM HIS RECENT ATTEMPTS, HE WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF HUMPHREYS WOULD DESIRE AN INTERVIEW WITH THE FBI AGENT HANDLING HIS INVESTIGATION IN ORDER TO MAKE KNOWN THE CURRENT STATUS OF HIS HEALTH. WHEN PRESSED FOR FURTHER DETAILS CONCERNING THIS, NORMAN REFUSED TO ELABORATE. WHEN REQUESTED TO FURNISH THE MESSAGE TO HUMPHREYS THAT THE AGENT WOULD TALK TO HUMPHREYS AT ANY TIME HE SO DESIRED, NORMAN REFUSED TO ADVISE THAT HE WOULD DO
